ABOUT THE HOME

Ideally located for access to Streatham Common, with its woodlands, Nature Reserve and Rookery gardens. Braxted Park is within close proximity of Streatham's hub of transport connections and amenities. These include numerous bars, independent coffee shops, restaurants, large supermarkets and a leisure centre which includes a public swimming pool and ice rink. Commuters are able to access London Bridge, Blackfriars and Victoria with swift services from the three local railway stations via Thameslink. The bus links also provide services direct to Brixton tube station within a short journey of fifteen minutes.
