Situated in a tucked away corner of Lowerhouse lies a fascinating property constructed of stone elevations dating back to the 18th Century. This intriguing semi-detached family home occupies an enviable position with commanding views overlooking open countryside and affords for the buyer to purchase a rare piece of Bollington's history. The property was a home to the previous occupiers for the last 20 years and is now being offered for sale with vacant possession, and although habitable, it is now in need of modernising throughout. Internally to the ground floor there is an entrance hallway that provides access to three bedrooms, the master having an en-suite shower room. a separate family bathroom, utility room and a garage. To the first floor there is an impressive 24ft triple aspect drawing room with access onto a rear balcony, a garden / family room and a good sized breakfast kitchen. Externally the property is set back behind a block paved driveway with gated access to the side that leads to an enclosed rear garden. For more information about this exemplary property, please feel free to contact Harvey Scott; your local bespoke estate agent on the details provided.

Location

Bollington is one of Cheshire's most popular locations with its cobbled streets, traditional pubs and quaint old buildings whilst also offering modern restaurants and a range of shops. The area has a great range of social and recreational facilities, many community based activities and local schools cater for children of all ages. The village is the western gateway to the Peak District with many beautiful walks on its doorstep including the Macclesfield Canal and Middlewood Way; the latter offering 11 miles of traffic free walking and cycling from Marple to Macclesfield. Lyme Park, Teggs Nose and Macclesfield Forest are also just a short distance away. Bollington offers excellent commuter links to the motorways, Manchester Airport and the rail network with Manchester city centre approximately eighteen miles away.
