Property Description

SITUATION

Found within the village of Pulham St Mary lying some 7 miles to the north of Diss, the property is well situated in the heart of this attractive village. Pulham St Mary forms part of "the Pulhams" associated with Pulham Market, with both of the villages being steeped in history believed to date back to 1258 and over the years have proved to have been a popular and sought after location offering a beautiful assortment of many period and modern properties, still with a strong and active local community helped by retaining a good niche infrastructure with many day to day amenities and facilities. The historic market town of Diss is found some 7 miles to the south with the benefit of a mainline railway station and a further extensive range of facilities.

DESCRIPTION

The property forms part of The Old Pulhams Maltings, believed to date back to 1865 and with the Maltings having been converted some 10 or so years ago. During the conversion much care and attention to details was undertaken to retain as much of the original character and charm, giving a most pleasing feel to this development. Each property is individually different to the next giving a more exclusive feeling to the development.

The property is perhaps one of the best houses on the development having been sympathetically converted and with pleasing colour wash rendered elevations under a pitched clay tiled roof and with solid wood casement double glazed windows and recently installed upvc double glazed doors. Internally the accommodation is still very much presented in a most excellent decorative order having been well-maintained and cared for by the current vendors.

EXTERNALLY

The property sits in more of a secluded position within the development having off-road parking for two cars to the front. A pathway in turn gives access to the front of the cottage adjacent to an area of gardens having been enclosed by concrete posts and panel fencing, being predominately laid to lawn and greatly enjoying a southerly aspect taking in all of the afternoon and evening sun.
