- Freehold detached property
- Established residential location
- Potential to reconfigure and develop subject to PP
- Plans created to add an adjoining two bedroom annex and an additional two bedroom detached cottage
- Wrap around plot of approximately 0.25 of an acre
- Extensive driveway parking
- Spacious accommodation comprising five bedrooms
- Sought-after village location
- Council tax band F
- EPC rating E

Unique opportunity. Set back from the road by an extensive driveway, this individual five bedroom detached home of excellent proportions is located within the popular village of Middle Barton. Unfolding over 2400 sq ft, 108 North Street is wrapped within a quarter of an acre plot and is sold with pre-drawn plans intelligently designed to maximise versatility.

Offering vast potential to create a truly contemporary multi-generational living space, the plans include provision for a two bedroom annex to be built under permitted development. In its current configuration, entry is via a central hallway which leads to a large well equipped kitchen/diner, utility room and handy W.C. to the left. The dual aspect reception room is located to the rear of the property with French Doors providing direct access to the gardens. The ground floor also offers three of the property's five bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principle bedroom with en-suite facilities and further double bedroom are located on first floor.

Externally, there is a large double garage and driveway parking for multiple vehicles. Offered with no onward chain.
