SITUATION

Richmond Road is a desirable no through road leading off Salterton Road around one mile from Exmouth's stunning seafront. Nearby is the popular marina with its array of highly rated restaurants and cafés, and the town centre's shops and amenities, including the leisure centre and cinema. Excellent transport links are available via the nearby train station, bus station and cycle path, as well as road connections to Exeter and beyond. The area is well served by a good selection of primary, secondary and private schools, as well as recreational facilities, making it ideal for families and those seeking a coastal lifestyle.

ACCOMMODATION

Located along this quiet, popular road is this well presented end-terrace house believed to have been constructed around the 1930s and still retaining a number of attractive period features. The front door opens into a useful entrance porch with a second door into the hallway which leads to the rear with the staircase rising to the first floor. On the right is a spacious sitting room with bay-window, exposed wooden floor boards and a lovely period gas feature fireplace with tiled surround and wooden mantle over. There is a separate dining room, a good size with a window to the rear and a wood burner and to the rear a spacious kitchen/breakfast room fitted with a range of white fronted base, wall and drawer units with a solid wood work top over and Belfast sink and there is a gas Range for cooking. A door leads to the side where the owners have created a garden room by covering a courtyard garden with a tiled floor, door to the garden and door to a secluded seating area.

On the first floor is a spacious landing leading to 4 bedrooms, including a master bedroom to the front where there is a bay-window, period fireplace and an ensuite with shower cubicle, low level W.C and a hand wash basin. There is also a family bathroom with panel bath, W.C and hand wash basin.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property is off road parking for 2 vehicles. To the rear is a charming mature garden, mainly lawn with a number of mature trees and shrubs and a garden shed. To the bottom is an attractive gravelled seating area and a gate gives access onto the cycle path at Bradham Lane.
