Redwing Drive

Discover this inviting and expansive family townhouse located in the charming town of Stowmarket, perfect for those seeking a home with no onward chain.

On the ground floor, you'll find a downstairs cloakroom conveniently situated for guests and family members, providing ease of access without the need to venture upstairs. The large kitchen/diner, the heart of the home, is perfect for entertaining and family gatherings. It features elegant French doors that open to the side, allowing plenty of natural light to flood the area and providing a seamless transition between indoor and outdoor living. The spacious lounge is a welcoming and light-filled space with windows to the front, side, and rear, ensuring the room is bathed in natural light throughout the day.

The first floor presents a main bedroom that serves as a luxurious retreat, featuring an ensuite bathroom and fitted wardrobes. An additional bedroom on this floor is perfect for children or guests, offering comfort and versatility. A shower room is conveniently located to serve the bedrooms on this floor, providing functionality and ease of use.

On the second floor, two additional double bedrooms offer flexibility for use as guest rooms, home offices, or children's rooms, ensuring plenty of space for a growing family. A well-appointed bathroom serves the needs of the second-floor bedrooms, ensuring convenience and privacy.

Externally, the property boasts a fence-enclosed rear garden, offering privacy and security in this charming outdoor space, complete with a patio area ideal for outdoor dining or relaxation. A side access gate to the front allows easy movement between the front and rear of the property. Off-road parking and a garage provide ample space for vehicles, ensuring convenience and security for the whole family.

Stowmarket

Stowmarket is a charming market town located in Suffolk, England. Housed in the heart of East Anglia, it boasts a rich history, picturesque landscapes, and a vibrant community.

Stowmarket offers a variety of attractions and activities for both residents and visitors. The Food Museum is one of the town's most popular attractions, providing insight into the rural and agricultural heritage of the region. It features historic buildings, exhibitions, and beautiful gardens. St. Peter and St. Mary Church is a stunning example of medieval architecture, standing as a testament to the town's historical and cultural heritage. The Regal Theatre, a beloved local institution, hosts a variety of performances, including films, live music, and theatre productions.

Stowmarket is known for its tight-knit community and welcoming atmosphere. The town hosts several annual events and festivals that bring people together, such as the Stowfiesta music festival and the Christmas Tree Festival. These events highlight the town's lively spirit and offer an opportunity for both residents and visitors to engage with the local culture.

As a traditional market town, Stowmarket maintains a strong local economy supported by various industries, including agriculture, retail, and manufacturing. The town's market days, held twice a week, continue to draw shoppers and vendors, maintaining a vibrant local trade.

Stowmarket is well-connected by road and rail, with the A14 providing easy access to nearby towns and cities. The Stowmarket railway station offers regular services to London, Norwich, and Cambridge, making it a convenient location for commuters. The town offers a range of educational facilities, from primary schools to a high school, ensuring that families have access to quality education options. Additionally, the town is equipped with essential services, including healthcare facilities, libraries, and recreational centres, contributing to a high quality of life for its residents.
