SITUATION

Merrifield Mews is well situated on the very edge of Charlestown - the picturesque coastal village renowned for its Georgian harbour built by local owner, Charles Rashleigh, and the number of tall ships that moor there. Charlestown is well regarded for its variety of public houses, restaurants and galleries. There are primary and secondary schools nearby.

The nearby town of St Austell has a direct main line rail link with London Paddington whilst the Cathedral City of Truro forming the main commercial heart of the county, is about 15 miles to the south west. Newquay Airport on the north coast offers a number of daily flights to both national and international destinations.

Recreational facilities of the area include walking to scenery of the south west coastal footpath; rugby football and cricket clubs in St Austell; Golf Clubs at Carlyon Bay, St Austell and Porthpean; sailing clubs at Porthpean, Fowey and Pentewan; numerous choirs in the area and many other clubs and pursuits.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

The approach to Merrifield Mews is over an initially tarmac drive, which is subject to a right of way in favour of a neighbouring property, which runs onto a private paved driveway with Cornish hedge borders and leads up to the house, detached garage and annexe where there is car parking and turning for a number of vehicles.

The sale of Merrifield Mews presents a tremendous opportunity to buy a large-scale property with a well-positioned three storey family house; a detached one-bedroom holiday annexe for holiday letting to generate an income; a fine detached Double Garage with internal first floor and an enclosed private and dog-friendly garden – all in a fine position in the edge of Charlestown.

Also on the ground floor is a Playroom/Family Room and a well-proportioned Living Room with wood floor and fireplace with inset wood-burner on slate hearth as well as three pairs of fully glazed sliding doors to the garden and outside. Off is an Office with door to outside.

On the first floor, all off the Galleried Landing, is a Master Bedroom with Dressing Area, with full height range of mirror fronted bedroom furniture with sliding doors, and an En Suite Bathroom with panelled bath and side filling Victorian style mixer tap shower fitment, wc, washbasin, fully tiled shower with rain-shower and wall mounted towel radiator; second Bedroom with an En Suite Shower Room; two other Bedrooms; and a Bathroom with a freestanding ball and claw bath with Victorian style mixer tap shower fitment, wc, washbasin and wall mounted towel radiator.

Enclosed stairs from the Landing lead up to two further good sized Bedrooms (part restricted ceiling height) in the roof, as well as a Shower Room with fully tiled shower with electric shower, wc and washbasin.
