SITUATION

Steeperton occupies an enviable position within the village of Belstone and enjoys fine uninterrupted views from the house and gardens across the open moor. The Dartmoor village of Belstone is a particularly unspoilt moorland community, which is well known for its local inn 'The Tors', village hall, church and cricket club. From Belstone there are superb walks and outriding onto paths and trails amongst the dramatic tors and hills of Dartmoor. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the nearby town of Okehampton which has three supermarkets including a Waitrose, nationally and locally owned shops, doctors surgery and leisure centre. There is schooling from infant to comprehensive standard, sports and leisure facilities including thriving rugby and football clubs as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The cathedral and university city of Exeter is easily accessible via Okehampton train station or the A30 dual carriageway, and provides an extensive shopping centre, together with international airport, M5 motorway and mainline rail connections.

DESCRIPTION

Steeperton is a superb and individual Edwardian detached home believed to date from the early 1900's. The internal accommodation is light and airy with high ceilinged reception rooms and many original features, these include picture rails, bay windows and fireplaces. They are complimented by modern bath/shower rooms, a well fitted kitchen with electric AGA, double glazing and oil fired central heating. The flexible accommodation is set over three floors and ideally lends itself to large family occupation. The well tended gardens lie mainly to the front of the house, from where there are unrivalled panoramic views, taking in Dartmoor and the Skaigh Valley. There is extensive parking together with a double garage.
