LOCATION

Hinckley is a town that has been thriving since Saxon times and was already a major town by the time its recorded in the doomsday book. Over its long history this area has experienced two notable boom periods the first began in Victorian England with the rise of the hosiery industry with Hinckley being the centre of excellence for the whole country. We are living in the second golden age with the new multi million pound Crescent development, Leisure Centre and much more besides ensuring Hinckley is the place to be for the next century at least. This property lies close to the centre of Hinckley benefitting from a host of local amenities including local theatre (The Concordia) leading supermarkets, hair and beauty parlours, restaurants and served by a number of sought after schools (according to the latest league tables) train and bus stations are all within walking distance.
