THE PROPERTY

A charming semi-detached cottage offering well-proportioned accommodation and a wealth of character. Believed to date from the early 20th century, the property features attractive stone, brick and flint elevations beneath a slate roof with replacement timber double-glazed windows to most rooms. Particularly noteworthy are the generous ceiling heights, which enhance the sense of space throughout the cottage, together with a number of attractive mullioned windows, adding to the property's unique character and period appeal.

The accommodation comprises an entrance lobby, sitting room, kitchen/dining room, rear porch, two bedrooms and a family bathroom. The cottage presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a full-time residence, second home or investment within a sought-after Dorset village setting.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the cottage is an attractive area of garden laid primarily to lawn and enclosed by traditional fencing and characterful stone and flint walling. A gravelled driveway to the side provides off-road parking and access to the rear garden.

The rear garden is predominantly lawned and enjoys a good degree of privacy, enclosed partially by established boundary walls that complement the cottage's period character. A substantial brick outbuilding lies to the side of the property providing useful ancillary storage. Split into three, the smallest section contains a gardener's WC (no longer used).
