SITUATION
Jacobstowe is a small rural community situated just to the north of Okehampton. The village is surrounded by rolling countryside in a region well known for its riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. Not only is the Dartmoor National Park within a short drive but the Tarka Trail, with its walking and cycling, runs close to the village. There is easy access to Okehampton, which can be reached either by main roads or by an attractive drive through the adjoining Abbeyford Woods. Okehampton offers an excellent range of shops, services and facilities and three supermarkets including a Waitrose. There is schooling from infant to comprehensive level together with a cinema, doctors surgery and leisure centre. From Okehampton there is direct access via train to Exeter and beyond, or via vehicle to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and University City of Exeter, with its M5 motorway, mainline rail and international air connections.

DESCRIPTION
A superb Grade II listed, three reception room, four bedroom residence located on the edge of the popular rural village of Jacobstowe. The property is offered in excellent order throughout and is very versatile. It is currently holiday let as two separate, two bedroom cottages by the present vendors. However there are connecting doors linking the two properties, so the property could easily be used as one family home, for dual occupation, or as a home with income potential. The property boasts many original period features which include three fireplaces, which all offer multi fuel or wood burning stoves. There are many exposed timbers, beams and feature screen. These features are well complimented by a modern kitchen, a number of well fitted bath and shower rooms and oil fired central heating. Externally the property offers off road parking and attractive areas of well established garden. This includes a superb fruit and vegetable garden for the keen garden enthusiast.
