DESCRIPTION

With more than 6,800 sq ft of living space, Ashley Manor is arranged so that its principal reception rooms and bedrooms face East or South, drawing in natural light from early morning through late afternoon. Perched on a gentle hillside, the house enjoys far reaching views across the Taw River valley and sits within a peaceful sweep of unspoilt Devon countryside, with Dartmoor in the distance.

A Grade II Listed property, it stands as a fine country house, distinguished by its generous proportions, tall ceilings, and wide sash windows that flood the interior with natural light. The property has recently been sympathetically renovated to a high standard with many period features restored and remain intact, including extensive joinery, elegant wainscot panelling, and a striking main staircase with a wreathed handrail and decorative cast iron balusters.

Externally, the property features a gated entrance leading to a gravelled driveway and a generous parking area with space for multiple vehicles. The gardens wrap around the house, providing a sense of complete privacy and seclusion.

Adjacent to the Manor lies a paddock a detached barn/workshop, stables, and a recently constructed separate single-storey one-bedroom timber lodge. Both ancillary buildings now hold recently granted planning permission with full residential consent, allowing for conversion and offering excellent potential for multigenerational living or the creation of a holiday-rental business.

All set within around 3.37 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

The entrance hall makes an unforgettable first impression, with elegant, tiled flooring flowing throughout, soaring ceilings, abundant natural light and a series of graceful archways that immediately signal the grandeur of the home. To the front, a refined study features bespoke built in shelving and an original sash window complete with restored shutters. The dual aspect drawing room is a truly magnificent space, centred around a large, curved bay window that frames sweeping, uninterrupted views. Reclaimed shutters remain in place, adding heritage charm, while a wood burning stove set within the fireplace creates a warm, inviting ambience. The dual aspect dining room continues the sense of scale and elegance, with a marble fireplace housing a woodburner and an architectural window detail above, perfectly positioned to capture the surrounding landscape. The utility room offers contemporary practicality with modern fitted units, gas hob, sink and generous appliance space, complemented by a walk in pantry. The kitchen is a showpiece in its own right - finished with flagstone slate flooring, sophisticated cabinetry, quartz worktops, an inset sink, dishwasher and a freestanding Rangemaster with extractor. An oil Aga adds timeless country luxury. The adjoining dining area and prep kitchen room, bathed in natural light from windows to both front and rear, provides an exceptional everyday living space. From here, the accommodation flows into a highly versatile wing, ideal for an annexe, guest suite or independent living, with its own external door to the driveway. This area includes a stylish shower room with WC, a media/TV room games room with garden access and built in cupboards incorporating a sink. Scope here to be used as an entertainment hub, children's wing, office suite or private quarters for a relative or guest. Further Ground Floor rooms can be accessed from either the entrance hall or kitchen, including a superb boot room with built in seating and coat storage, perfect after countryside walks with direct access back to the driveway. A secondary staircase rises discreetly to the first floor.

An elegant, sweeping staircase rises to an expansive landing from which all seven bedroom suites can be accessed - each one of exceptional scale and appointed with its own beautifully finished ensuite bath or shower room. The principal suite is particularly striking, echoing the grandeur of the drawing room below with its tall, graceful bow window that captures a breathtaking, uninterrupted panorama across the Taw Valley.

OUTSIDE

Approached through a gated entrance, the property is introduced by a large gravel driveway leading to a generous parking area beside the house, offering ample space for multiple vehicles. The gravel continues around the residence, forming a broad, elegant promenade that wraps the exterior. Behind the house, this space opens into an idyllic outdoor dining terrace perfectly positioned to capture the far reaching views. The gardens and grounds have been thoughtfully designed for ease of maintenance while retaining a sense of grandeur. A wide, beautifully kept lawn is bordered by mature trees and shrubs, with established hedging providing excellent privacy.

Adjacent the entrance gates lies the paddock, along with the lodge and outbuilding both benefiting from planning permission. These sit well away from the main residence, ensuring complete privacy and no intrusion on the principal home. In total, the gardens and grounds extend to approximately 3.37 acres (1.36 hectares), offering space, seclusion and a wonderfully natural setting.

THE LODGE & PLANNING

A recently constructed charming one bedroom lodge which offers thoughtfully designed accommodation, featuring a stylish open plan kitchen, dining and living space centred around a charming woodburner. The modern kitchen includes a central island, ample built in storage, integrated appliances and a contemporary finish throughout. A well appointed wet room provides a walk in shower, WC and basin. The double bedroom benefits from a built in wardrobe and enjoys a peaceful outlook. French doors to both the front and rear open onto the garden and adjacent paddock. Ideal for a dependent relative, guest suite, rental/holiday rental.

The lodge comes with the added benefit of full residential planning permission, and the opportunity to extend into a larger multi bedroom home if desired. Behind the lodge sit the existing stables, currently incorporated within the planning consent for conversion, offering an opportunity to expand the living accommodation further to create a stylish single story residential dwelling. Planning was granted on 10/06/2026, under Planning Reference 81801.

OUTBUILDING PLANNING PERMISSION

Adjacent to the property and neighbouring The Lodge is a single story workshop/garaging which has full planning permission granted on 12/05/2026 under Planning Reference 81569 for the conversion of a redundant building into a single dwelling. The proposed property would be a one-bedroom, single story unit with ample parking and generous garden.
