WHY CATLOWDY?

Set within a private elevated plot in the small settlement of Catlowdy, Chapel Hill offers the incoming buyer superb far reaching views alongside a peaceful rural setting. The nearby Pentonbridge Inn offers fine dining and drinks in a relaxed environment. A range of local amenities are available in Longtown, just a short drive to the south, and access to the wider region via the M6/M74 and A7 ensures that despite the rural location the property remains readily accessible.

ACCOMMODATION

Incredibly spacious throughout the accommodation is well suited to family living. The lower ground level houses a garage, the entrance porch and a sizeable boot room store and utility, which also provides an additional access to the garden. On the upper ground floor, the heart of the home is a spacious, modern dining kitchen with island and a large glazed window enjoying far reaching elevated views. Double doors lead from here out to a paved patio and the garden. From the kitchen the property has a lovely circular flow, leading in to a bar area and then through to a separate dining room space. There is also an en-suite bedroom on this floor which is perfect as a guest suite. The living room, another impressive space has doors out to the garden, and a large feature fireplace. Stairs also lead up from here to a spacious gallery landing on the top floor. The pool and gym area is accessed from the living room and can be seen through a large window. The pool space is fully tiled and in good condition throughout. At the far end is the plant room and a gym space. The remaining four bedrooms, three of which are en-suite are located on the top floor. The fourth, whilst not en-suite, has use of the adjacent family bathroom. There is a second sitting room with an impressive pitched ceiling and a large office space which, like the kitchen below, benefits from the superb far reaching views and could also be utilised as a sixth bedroom if required. Externally the property sits nestled amongst the trees in a large garden site and is approached through double gates up a sweeping tarmac driveway. Of particular interest though is the adjacent acreage with direct roadside access and stables.
