what the owners will miss

"I love living in this property, its close to all the shops I have lovely neighbours it is a new build, I will miss the convenience of the shops and travel connections we often visit the Blue Bowl which is just down the road so will miss our visits to here, It is now time for retirement and we would like a smaller property for our next chapter."

just a thought...

Looking for a modern yet characterful home finished to a high standard than this could be the one! Lovely stone frontage, off street parking and super convenient location with local amenities literally on your door step.
