Low Fold Long Lee Lane, Keighley

A rare opportunity to acquire this exceptional four-bedroom barn conversion, tucked away in a sought after location and enjoying stunning countryside views to the rear. Offered with no onward chain, this beautiful home combines original period features and spacious living accommodation throughout.

The ground floor welcomes you into an inviting entrance hall with useful under stairs storage and a convenient downstairs W.C., with stairs rising to the first floor. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units complemented by granite work surfaces and a traditional Belfast sink. A double oven creates an attractive focal point, while space and plumbing are provided for a washing machine and tumble dryer. A breakfast bar offers additional seating, perfect for informal dining. The impressive living room is full of warmth and character, featuring exposed beams, exposed stonework and a striking stone fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, which also helps heat the upstairs and hallway. The dining room continues the rustic charm with further exposed beams and stonework, alongside ample space for a family dining table. Skylights flood the room with natural light, creating an ideal setting for entertaining. Double doors lead through to the conservatory, a wonderful place to relax while enjoying views across the gardens. To the first floor are four bedrooms and the house bathroom. The principal bedroom showcases beautiful original features, including arched exposed stone windows and a feature fireplace. Three bedrooms are doubles, with the fourth offering a versatile single bedroom. Built-in storage can be found in bedrooms two and four, while all bedrooms retain attractive character features.
