ABOUT THE HOME

A five bedroom Victorian family home in excellent condition, complete with a south facing garden and a brand new loft conversion completed last year, including a stylish en-suite shower room. The family bathroom was also upgraded within the last year, finished with marble floor and wall tiles. The house still maintains many of its original period features throughout and is located in the heart of Streatham Hill, with a short walk to Tooting Bec Common.

Kingscourt Road is moments from Streatham High Road, where a plethora of popular bars, restaurants and amenities can be found. Local bus routes, as well as Streatham Hill Station (served by Southern), are only a short walk away, offering quick and direct services into London Victoria and London Bridge, allowing for frequent access into and out of the City.

Families will also appreciate the excellent choice of local schooling nearby, including the Ofsted "Outstanding" rated Henry Cavendish Primary School, and Streatham & Clapham High School (both prep and senior school).
