PRIME TOWN CENTRE RETAIL OPPORTUNITY

A rare opportunity to acquire one of Uppingham's most recognisable and characterful businesses, prominently situated at the junction of High Street East and Market Place within the heart of this highly regarded Rutland market town.

The business has traded with the current proprietor as an Ironmongers for over 40 years and has established itself as a well-known and respected local business serving Uppingham and the surrounding villages.

The current proprietor will consider the letting of the premises by separate negotiation.

Providing accommodation over basement, ground, first and second floors, the property extends to approximately 2,723 sq. ft (253 sq. m) and offers a unique opportunity to occupy a landmark building in one of the East Midlands' most desirable market towns.

THE BUSINESS

The business is offered for sale as a going concern and will include all goodwill. The business has been established for over 40 years and has a loyal client base. The current proprietor is available for a handover period if required. All interested parties will be required to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement and provide evidence of their experience in retail and/or in the sector, together with sources of funding.

Trading continuously for more than four decades, the business enjoys a strong local reputation, loyal customer base and longstanding presence within the community.

Further details relating to the business, goodwill, fixtures and fittings, stock and trading information are available upon request.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a substantial period retail premises occupying a commanding corner position within Uppingham's Conservation Area. Constructed of attractive local limestone beneath a slate roof, the building is a fine example of the town's traditional Georgian and Victorian architecture and forms an important part of the historic streetscape.

The most striking feature is the elegant, curved corner elevation which addresses both High Street East and Market Place, creating a highly visible trading position and a distinctive architectural presence. Large multi-pane sash windows extend through the upper floors, whilst an impressive, curved bay window enhances both the external appearance and the abundance of natural light internally.

At ground floor level, the property benefits from an attractive traditional shopfront incorporating decorative classical columns, pilasters and extensive display glazing beneath a retractable striped canopy. The frontage provides excellent visibility and a strong retail presence within the town centre.

Internally, the property offers extensive retail and ancillary accommodation arranged over four levels and retains considerable character befitting its historic setting. The accommodation can support a wide variety of retail, showroom, gallery, office or specialist
