The south facing gardens and all of the main rooms in the cottage enjoy the spectacular far-reaching views over open fields to the rear. There is a bespoke open barn/double garage, made of Douglas Fir, and secure gated parking on the driveway.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation has a welcoming kitchen fitted with a range of matching wall and base units, featuring an oil-fired Rayburn which serves as both a focal point and source of warmth. The kitchen leads through to a dining room, which could equally serve as a second reception room. A separate living room provides a cosy retreat, complete with an attractive fireplace housing a wood-burning stove. The cottage enjoys inglenook stone windows throughout and offers a traditional style of living, with heating provided by the Rayburn and wood-burning stove. The extensive views can be appreciated from many rooms within the property, enhancing its peaceful countryside appeal. The first floor comprises three bedrooms, including two comfortable double rooms and a third single bedroom. These are served by a family bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The cottage has a gated driveway and is surrounded by delightful cottage-style gardens laid predominantly to lawn measuring 0.242 of an acre. The gardens back directly onto open fields and enjoy uninterrupted views across miles of rolling countryside. A pathway leads down to a substantial bespoke open-fronted barn/double garaging, handcrafted in Douglas Fir and incorporating the original garage, which is currently utilised as a workshop. Adjacent to this is a brick-built outbuilding used as a freezer and store room, housing the electrical fuse-board serving the barn. There is a further outbuilding, which may be removed by the current owners if preferred, leaving additional hardstanding space.
