ABOUT THE HOME

A well-presented three bedroom, two bathroom, split-level Victorian maisonette offering 1,144 sq.ft of living space. Arranged over two floors, the accommodation comprises a well-proportioned full-width reception room with original fireplace, high ceilings and a large bay window with fully refurbished sash windows offering garden views, kitchen/breakfast room with integrated appliances, one double bedroom and a modern shower room. On the second floor is a spacious principal bedroom with en suite shower room, a further bedroom and a separate dressing room (formerly a bathroom, so plumbing exists if needed).

One of the quieter roads off Clapham Common North Side, Thirsk Road is a sought after location convenient for transport links at Clapham Junction mainline station and also the underground at Clapham Common (Northern line). The independent shops, cafés and bars of Lavender Hill, Battersea Rise and Clapham Old Town are all within reach, along with excellent local schools in the private and state sectors.
