Beautifully presented modern style home in popular location.

Entrance hallway, good size lounge and kitchen diner.

Three bedrooms and a upstairs family bathroom, enclosed rear garden.

the location

Popular location close to Crews Hole, Conham river park and Troopers Hill nature reserve. There are local shops nearby at Bryants Hill, and the more comprehensive facilities of Hanham high street are a short distance away. Surprisingly close to the city, yet with a host of green, wooded and river walks literally on the doorstep. This area is a genuinely pleasant surprise to those who don't know it, and is well worth a look.

what the owners will miss

"We loved being so close to troopers hill and the river, it's such a nice place for walks, we really enjoyed having so much green space on our doorstep. Also, we always felt so safe and welcome on the street and will really miss the community."

just a thought...

If you hadn't considered this age of house before, think again. Modern and bright, with a pleasant garden, great location and all offered at an extremely competitive price point.
