SITUATION

Plympton St Maurice is an unspoilt and sought after village and conservation area with Fore Street at its heart situated on the outskirts of Plympton. The village affords a pretty 15th Century Church and the remains of a Norman Castle overlooking the village green, which plays host to the annual Midsummer Festival, Lamb Feast. A wide range of amenities are a short walk away in Plympton's Ridgeway shopping area which has a variety of shops, banks and chemists to choose from. Excellent primary and secondary schools are all within walking distance as well as local leisure facilities include a swimming pool, tennis courts, bowling green and cricket field. Plympton St Maurice has a vibrant and active community enjoying a variety of social events. Perfectly located with excellent links to the A38/Devon Expressway, the favourable sunny beaches of the South Hams Coast and Countryside, and Dartmoor.

DESCRIPTION

A charming, double-fronted, two-bedroom cottage which has been thoughtfully improved and maintained to offer a comfortable home in the heart of the village. This Grade II listed property offers sash windows and a handsome front door as well as a more practical side entrance from the covered walkway into the kitchen. The attractive shaker style fitted kitchen benefits from integrated fridge/freezer, electric oven and hob. The well-proportioned living room is spans the front of the property and includes a feature fireplace, the original front door, and two windows overlooking the front. A characterful, winding staircase lead from the kitchen to the spacious landing which provides access via a ladder and hatch to the loft room. The two double bedrooms have windows the front of the property and one includes original fitted cupboards and a feature fireplace. The modern shower room is fully tiled and well-appointed with built in storage cabinets. The loft room has been fully boarded and offers natural light via a Velux window and is currently accessible via a pull-down ladder. The current vendor has already purchased a staircase for fitting and more appropriate access could be installed for use as a third bedroom (subject to building regulations).

OUTSIDE

The delightful south-facing garden is located a short walk from the cottage via a shared path which leads to a selection of other private gardens. The garden is entered via a solid wooden gate and bordered by fencing and a stone wall making it a very secure. The decked seating area offers a very private place to sit and enjoy the surroundings as well as the colourful flower borders with a well-maintained lawn. There is also a useful brick-built outbuilding to store all necessary gardening tools.
