Substantial stone-built barn conversion occupying generous gardens on the fringes of Congresbury village, offered to the market with a wonderful combination of character, space and versatility – The Barn is an impressive four-bedroom detached home, tucked away within a charming cul-de-sac setting and enjoying beautifully proportioned accommodation of almost 1,900 sq ft. From the moment you step through the front door, the property delivers a real sense of space, with a welcoming entrance hall providing access to the principal ground floor rooms. To one side, a spacious dual-aspect sitting room enjoys excellent natural light and is centred around an enclosed log-burning fire, creating a warm and inviting environment in which to relax. Opposite, a further reception room immediately captures the character of the building, with an exposed stone feature wall providing a striking focal point and adding charm and personality to the space. To the rear, the dining room enjoys generous dimensions and benefits from French doors opening directly onto the rear garden, making it an ideal room for both formal dining and entertaining. The recently refitted kitchen breakfast room has been thoughtfully designed and fitted with a range of base cabinets and work surfaces, while large windows provide a pleasant outlook across the rear garden. A useful boot room and cloakroom WC add further practicality to the ground floor accommodation. To the first floor, a generous landing leads to four double bedrooms, all of which benefit from excellent proportions. The principal bedroom enjoys the convenience of an en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom fitted with a white three-piece suite. The overall arrangement creates a highly flexible layout that will suit growing families, buyers working from home or those simply seeking more generous room sizes than are typically found in modern homes.

Outside, the property enjoys extensive lawned gardens wrapping around both the side and rear of the home, creating a wonderful setting and emphasising the sense of space on offer. Mature trees, established hedges and well-stocked planting provide privacy, structure and year-round interest, while the generous lawns offer plenty of room for children to play, keen gardeners to enjoy or simply for relaxing during the warmer months. French doors from the dining room allow the gardens to become a natural extension of the living accommodation, making the property particularly well suited to entertaining. The grounds are a genuine feature of The Barn, offering an increasingly rare balance of usable outdoor space and manageable maintenance. To the front, ample off-street parking is available for numerous vehicles, complemented by a detached garage that provides useful storage, workshop potential or secure parking.

Station Road enjoys a convenient position on the edge of Congresbury, a thriving North Somerset village that continues to prove popular with families and commuters alike. The village offers a broad range of amenities including shops, cafés, public houses, a doctors' surgery, pharmacy and primary schooling, all supported by a strong sense of community. Nearby Yatton provides a mainline railway station with regular services towards Bristol, Bath and London Paddington, while easy access to the A370 and M5 motorway network makes travelling throughout the region straightforward. The surrounding countryside, Congresbury Yeo and Strawberry Line provide excellent opportunities for walking and cycling, while the coast at Clevedon and Weston-super-Mare remains within easy reach. Rarely do barn conversions become available that combine such generous room sizes, mature gardens and a convenient village setting, making The Barn an exciting opportunity within one of North Somerset's most sought-after locations.
