Rectory Lane

Kings Langley

A charming three-bedroom detached character home, ideally positioned just a couple of minutes' walk from Kings Langley High Street.

Dating from the 1930's, this attractive property retains a wealth of original character features while having been sympathetically extended to the ground floor, creating a versatile and well-balanced family home. The property has been redecorated throughout and is offered for sale with no upper chain.

The ground floor provides a welcoming entrance, a spacious reception room with character features and a superb kitchen-diner with vaulted ceiling, providing an impressive and sociable heart to the home. Additionally, there is a particularly large living/dining room with feature fireplace and bay window, as well as a functional utility room. The first floor offers three bedrooms and a family bathroom, with the accommodation retaining the charm and proportions associated with a traditional period property.

Outside, the property benefits from a driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles (as well as further parking to the rear), while the attractive west-facing rear garden offers a wonderful private outdoor space and features a garage.

There is also further potential to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions, making this an excellent opportunity for those looking to create their ideal long-term home.

Perfectly situated for access to the amenities of Kings Langley High Street, local schooling, transport links and the surrounding countryside, this is a characterful home combining period appeal with modern family living.
