15 Grenville Avenue, Wendover, Buckinghamshire HP22 6AG

This beautifully presented four double bedroom family home, built in 1939, has had only two families in residence since it was first constructed. The current owner has lived here for more than 25 years and has thoughtfully extended and maintained the property, preserving many of its original features — including a beautifully simple Art Deco fireplace with an open fire that remains in regular use. The spacious sitting room, kitchen breakfast room, and airy conservatory provide versatile living spaces, ideal for a growing family or a downsizer seeking room to entertain. Outside, the private, southerly facing garden is a real highlight, offering peace and privacy. Perfectly positioned close to the park and reservoir, yet within easy walking distance of Wendover, this lovely home truly needs to be seen to be appreciated.
