THE PROPERTY

44 South Mill Lane is an attractive semi-detached house, in a very convenient tucked away location within the town, close to the River Meadows and amenities. It was built in circa 2007 with attractive rendered and natural stone elevations under a slate roof.

The excellent specification includes gas-fired central heating, traditional timber sealed unit windows, well equipped kitchen with solid oak worktops and comprehensive appliances (electric oven, gas hob, integrated dishwasher and washing machine), attractive bathroom/shower room fittings and oak flooring to the ground and first floors.

The house is well presented and enjoys lovely views over the town rooftops, the church and distant countryside. The spacious accommodation is arranged over three floors extending to:

Ground floor - Canopy porch, living/dining room, kitchen, cloakroom
First floor - Landing with airing cupboard, bedroom with Juliet balcony, bedroom, bathroom
Second floor - Landing, double aspect principal bedroom with en-suite shower room

OUTSIDE

To the side of the house is a good sized gravelled driveway/parking area and pedestrian gate. The rear courtyard style garden has been designed for ease of maintenance with large timber shed and fully enclosed, featuring part stone/brick walling.

SITUATION

The property enjoys a very convenient and tucked away position, just off South Street. It is within easy reach of the town centre and close to the River Meadows, with attractive walks. Bridport has excellent shopping, business and leisure facilities together with a popular twice weekly market. Morrisons Superstore and Bridport Leisure Centre are both within only about 5/10 minutes' walk. West Bay, with its attractive harbour, bathing beaches and access to the beautiful World Heritage Jurassic Coast is very nearby. The larger centres of Dorchester and Weymouth are within 20/30 minutes' driving distance, with mainline rail services to London.
