ABOUT THE HOME

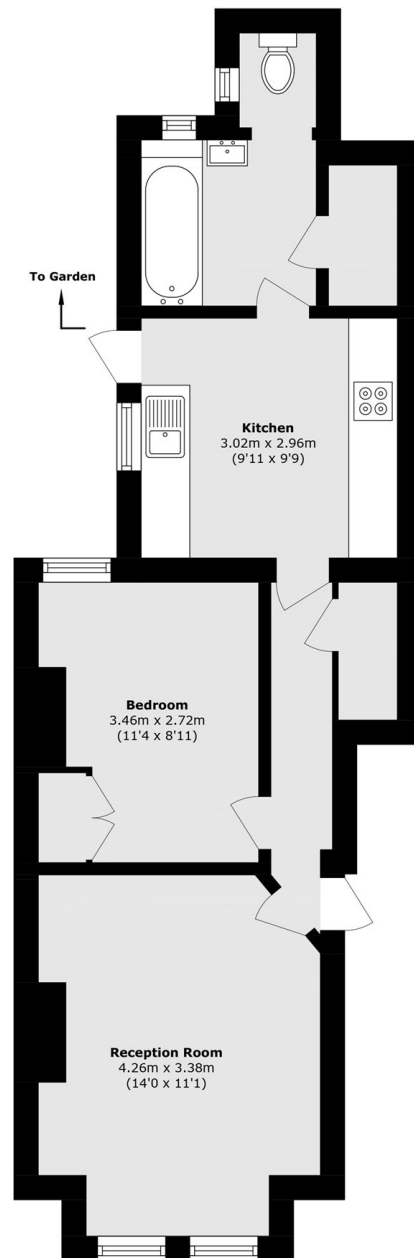

A beautifully presented one bedroom, ground floor Victorian conversion flat featuring a private paved garden.

Finished to a modern standard throughout, accommodation comprises; a light-filled front reception room featuring polished wooden floors, bespoke alcove shelving, a feature fireplace, and original period details. Beyond is a well-proportioned double bedroom complete with custom fitted wardrobes. To the rear, a separate fitted kitchen leads out to a low-maintenance paved garden, while a contemporary family bathroom and separate WC complete this stylish home.

The property is situated on Aslett Street, a desirable residential road ideally located within close proximity to Earlsfield railway station and the extensive range of shops, restaurants, and amenities along Garratt Lane. The green open spaces of King George's Park and Wandsworth Common are also nearby.

Total area (approx.): 47.2 sq. m (508.0 sq. ft)
