what the owners will miss

We have both enjoy bring our family up in Hanham over the last 29 years. We are very lucky to have a wonderful High Street with amazing shops and restaurants which we will miss. We are lucky to be on the outskirts of Bristol to watch the annual balloon fiesta which we deeply miss. We have certainly enjoyed being the custodians of our family home and certainly will miss the lovely friends we have made, not to mention the wonderful walks with our dogs.

Set on the borders of St George and Hanham, Dundridge playing fields and Magpie Bottom Nature Reserve are both literally on the doorstep. There is a Sainsburys Local a short distance away and the facilities of Hanham high street, and its range of shops, bars and restaurants, is easily accessible. There is a range of good local schools nearby. Bristol 2.8 miles Bath 9.1 miles
