

Willcott Road, W3

£623 pw (£2,700 pcm)

Located on the ground floor of an end-of-terrace period property is this beautifully presented two bedroom garden flat. Finished to a high specification throughout and offers a generous living space of 941 sq. Ft.

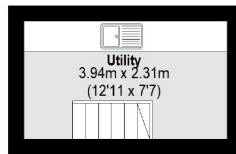

Filled with natural light, the property features a generous open plan kitchen and reception room with bi-folding doors opening directly onto a private garden. Both double bedrooms have wooden flooring, built-in wardrobes and excellent storage. Additionally, there are two bathrooms and underfloor heating throughout.

A particular feature of the property is the exceptional amount of storage throughout the flat and a substantial separate basement which includes a second sink and a second fridge - a rare and highly practical addition.

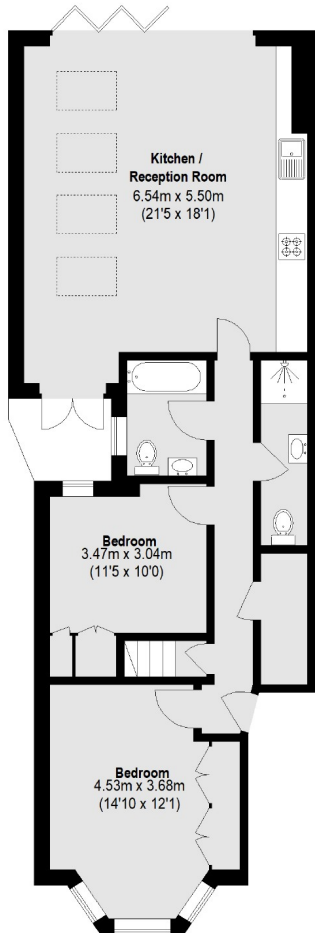

Willcott Road is ideally situated for local amenities and transport links including Acton Town Underground station which is only 0.3 miles away and provides direct access to the District and Piccadilly lines.
