SITUATION
The field and pond are pleasantly situated in unspoiled rolling countryside about 2 miles to the south-east of St Agnes and 2.5 miles from a junction to the A30(T). It is situated with direct access from an unclassified country lane, in a pleasant, quiet and accessible position.

DESCRIPTION

At the western end, in a delightful sheltered position, is a pond which extends to about 0.2 of an acre and which is currently encircled with Pittosporum and various trees and shrubs. Given its quiet and tranquil position, the pond is a natural haven for wildlife and indeed a wide variety of flora and fauna abound. Just outside the western boundary of the land is a small stream.

In total, the property extends to about 2.97 acres.

HIMALAYAN KNOTWEED
On the southern boundary of the land, is an area within which Himalayan Knotweed was growing and on which viewers will note that an eradication treatment has been applied.

PLAN
A plan which is not to scale and is provided for identification purposes only is included with these particulars.

SERVICES

VIEWING
Strictly and only by prior appointment with Stags' Truro office on 01872 264488. Please take care around the pond.
