Description

This well-presented two bedroom terraced house offers spacious and contemporary accommodation throughout. The property features two generous double bedrooms, both with fitted storage, a modern first-floor bathroom, contemporary fitted kitchen, spacious living room and the added convenience of a downstairs WC. Externally, there is a generous rear garden with a patio area and side gate access, together with a private driveway providing parking for two cars.

Situation

Situated on Cherry Tree Avenue in Yiewsley, West Drayton, this property benefits from a convenient residential location, within easy reach of local shops, supermarkets, cafés and everyday amenities along Yiewsley High Street and West Drayton town centre. Excellent transport links are available, with West Drayton Station providing Elizabeth line services into Central London and convenient connections to Heathrow Airport. The area also offers good road links via the A4, M4 and M25, making it ideal for commuters. Families will appreciate the choice of nearby schools, including Colham Manor Primary School, Rabbsfarm Primary School and Park Academy West London, all within convenient reach. The nearby parks and recreational spaces also provide opportunities for outdoor activities and leisure.
