Set behind the restored Victorian garden walls of the former Farnborough Hill estate, the development features mature trees, landscaped grounds, a central pond and neighbouring fields, creating a peaceful setting with a rare sense of space and character.

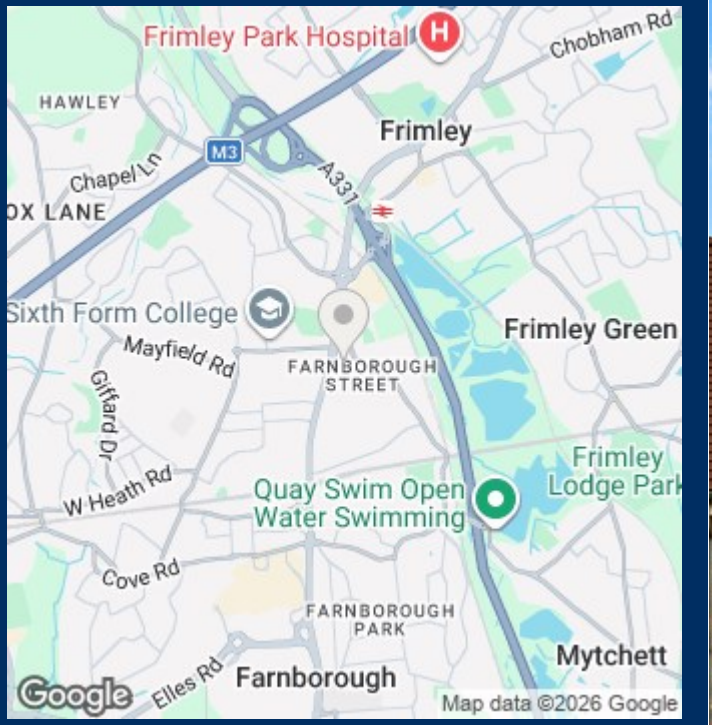

Designed to exceed stringent Passivhaus energy standards, every home offers year-round comfort and reduced energy consumption. Features include EPC A-rated performance, triple glazing, enhanced insulation, whole-house Mechanical Ventilation with Heat Recovery (MVHR), and integrated solar and battery technology supporting hot water and electric underfloor heating. The gas-free design provides fresh, filtered air, improved acoustic insulation and reduced carbon emissions.

Quality comes as standard, with elegant Shaker-style kitchens, genuine stone worktops, Quooker taps and premium integrated appliances. Larger three and four-bedroom homes also feature Miele appliances and induction hobs. Underfloor heating extends across the entire ground floor and all upstairs bathrooms, with opportunities to personalise selected finishes, subject to availability and build stage.

Ship Lane occupies the former walled kitchen garden and orchard of Farnborough Hill, associated with Empress Eugénie, the final Empress of France. The estate welcomed distinguished visitors, including Queen Victoria, and its restored Victorian garden wall remains a defining feature. Situated within the Farnborough Hill Conservation Area and recorded on the Hampshire Register of Historic Parks and Gardens, Ship Lane combines contemporary living with a setting rich in heritage.

Within walking distance of Farnborough Main and Farnborough North railway stations, Ship Lane is ideally placed for commuters, with Junction 4 of the M3 also readily accessible. Farnborough Gate provides convenient shopping and retail amenities, while Farnborough Sixth Form College and Farnborough Hill Independent Girls' School are nearby.

Show home anticipated to open in February 2027. All homes anticipated to be completed by May 2027.
