This attractive family home combines a bright, sociable layout with a lovely sense of space. The southwest facing rear garden is a real highlight, offering an appealing outdoor setting for relaxing or entertaining. Original wooden floorboards and the gas fire add character, while the open-plan arrangement creates a natural hub for modern family life. The property also benefits from an excellent school catchment, making it especially appealing to families seeking convenience alongside a desirable setting. Practical touches include useful storage, a covered side return and on-street parking with potential to add a driveway. A characterful home with a green outlook and a garden to enjoy.

The ground floor is centred around a spacious open-plan living and dining area, creating a flexible and welcoming space for everyday family life and entertaining. The lounge benefits from original wooden floorboards and a gas fire, adding warmth and character. The adjoining kitchen/dining room provides a practical connection between cooking, dining and relaxation. A ground floor bathroom provides convenient accessibility for all family members and guests. The first floor provides three bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with built-in wardrobe and en-suite, alongside two further bedrooms offering flexibility for children, guests or home working.

The rear garden enjoys a desirable southwest-facing aspect whilst the front has a lovely outlook across the green, creating a pleasant place to relax or entertain. A covered side return runs from the rear gate through towards the garden, providing useful sheltered access and additional practicality. There is also useful understairs storage, accessed externally via the rear door. To the front, there is on-street parking, with the option of adding a dropped kerb in future if desired.
