OUR PEOPLE

GENDER PAY & BONUS GAP

	MEAN	MEDIAN
HOURLY PAY	28%	27%
BONUS	53%	44%

The hourly gender pay gap is the difference between the average hourly pay rate for males and females for the month of April 2023 expressed as a % of the male average. The bonus pay gap is the difference between the average of all bonuses, including commissions, paid to male and female employees in the 12 months up to and including April 2023 expressed as a % of the male average. "Average" is calculated in two ways, mean and median. The mean is the total male or female pay divided by the total number of males or females. The median is the pay received by the middle male or female when all hourly rates or bonuses are ranked in order.

PAY QUANTILES

Our figures show the average hourly pay for male employees is more than female employees. This is due to a higher proportion of senior roles being occupied by men, creating the gap, and a higher proportion of lower paid administrative roles tending to be occupied by women. The gender pay gap demonstrates the overall difference in average earnings (mean and median) between men and women. This is not the same as equal pay, which is the difference between men and women carrying out the same role, similar roles or roles of equal value. Our policy is to pay men and women equally for doing equivalent jobs across our business.

PROPORTION OF MALES & FEMALES RECEIVING A BONUS

It continues to be the case that there are a higher proportion of males in the upper pay quartile where roles would typically attract a higher bonus opportunity. Within our administrative functions, the majority of our people are women and these roles have no opportunity to earn a bonus for either males or females.

We also offer part-time and flexible working opportunities across the company. These are more common in lower paid roles that do not carry a bonus opportunity, and these roles tend to attract a higher proportion of women.

OUR VIEW

Our approach has always been to ensure we have the right person in each role, irrespective of gender. We remain committed to a culture of meritocracy whereby career progression is based entirely on ability. We will continue to facilitate opportunities for all our people to progress and make sure that we regularly review fair practices and policies. We will continue to ensure we have a working environment where everyone has the same chance to be successful and where opportunities for development, promotion, recognition and rewards for excellence are irrespective of gender. We will continue to ensure that our approach to setting pay is fair, and that people performing similar roles, with similar experience, will be treated equally. Our people are our most valuable asset and we are committed to investing in them to achieve their full potential with no discrimination.
