To comply with the "Money Laundering and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017" the rules require that at the issuing of a paddle number there is an intention to enter into a contractual arrangement with the auctioneer. Taylor and Fletcher is required to comply and therefore will require the following ID to verify you and thus allow you to bid. Thus please bring the following information/items to the sale (or email before):

For Sole Traders:

Either:

- a valid passport
- a valid photo card driving licence (full or provisional)
- a firearms certificate

For Businesses:

Headed notepaper showing:

- a. The full name of the company
- b. Company or other registration number
- c. VAT registration number (if applicable)
- d. Registered address and principal place of business
- e. Names of the board of directors or equivalent body
- f. Names of the senior person responsible for its operations
- g. For partnerships- all the partners with greater than 25% share are required

Please note that as per the sale terms, no fodder can be collected until cleared funds have been acknowledged by the auctioneers
