HILL RADNOR FLOCK BOOK SOCIETY

Sheep penned by 12.00 pm

Judging commences at 12.30 pm

Sale begins at 2.00 pm

- Halters are required for rams during judging
- Breeders are responsible for all stud Rams in the Society's Flock Book
- Any error or description in the catalogue inclusive of change of sheep to be notified and announced by the Auctioneers at the time of sale.
- All registered sheep must be transferred by Vendors to the Purchasers through their Honorary Secretary in order that complete records may be kept and entered in the Flock Book. This can be done via Grassroots.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS AND BUYERS

- Every care has been taken by the Secretary to obtain full particulars of the sheep entered in the various classes.
- The rules embodied in the schedule must be observed.
- All pedigree sheep should be properly marked and tagged. Sheep may be subject to scanning to ensure that the correct documentation accompanies each animal. It is the vendor's responsibility to ensure that this documentation is correct.
- Rams must be bid for in Guineas.

Minimum bid: Older Rams	150 Guineas
Yearling Rams	250 Guineas
Ram Lambs	150 Guineas

CONDITIONS OF SALE AND RULES

The rules governing the conditions of sale are those laid down and recommended for use at market by the Livestock Auctioneers Market Committee for England and Wales.
