Rendells Chagford Livestock Market Report
Sale of Sheep, Machinery and Sundries on Saturday 29th August

Rendells auctioneers are extremely pleased to report an entry of 892 Sheep for the August sale with a full compliment of buyers in attendance despite the weather.

Store Lambs

Store lambs sold to £157 for Charlotte Connabeer, with regular supporters Crispin & Steve Alford topping out at £128 with two other pens at £127, Jake Jackson and The Arscott Family both made £126 of their pens, with Pete Weaving not far behind at £123.50 & Angus Mortimore sold Cheviots at £123 with other hill lambs to £120 from Coaker & Geen of Princetown giving an overall average of £101.

Ewes

A good run of shearling ewes from The Davis family of Chagford topped the section at £224 for a pen of cheviots with both Scotch & Welsh Mules at £220 and Suffolks to £200. Older ewes sold to £140 for Texel types from Fred & Clive Janes and Ann Cole sold aged hill ewes to £102.

Rams

A total clearance was achieved with the top spot being shared at £500 for The Arscott Family & Ross Skelley of Shaugh Prior with Charollais Shearlings. Lucy & Bill Hawker sold Border Leicester x Shearlings well at £350 Twice & Ross Skelley was back at £300 with a Crossbred Ram. Hill Rams Peaked at £190 For Badger Faced from Charlotte Connabeer.

Whiteface & Greyface Dartmoor Breeding Sheep

A pleasing entry of Dartmoor sheep was met with a contingent of smallholder buyers being readily available on a Saturday to come and join in. Topping the day was Steve Alford with his broken mouth Greyface at £122, Lewis Steer sold WF Mules at £111, Purebred WF Shearlings to £110, The Smith Family parted with their trio of GF 6T ewes at £108. A couple Pens of WF ewe lambs reached £78 for John Weaving with other pens to £70. A total clearance of Rams in this section also with £170 given twice, firstly for a 4T Greyface followed by a WF Shearling for Lucy & Bill Hawker who sold another at £150 and an aged ram at £120.

Sundries

A smaller entry of Machinery saw a top call of £1000 for an Ifor Williams Livestock Trailer, a PTO Corkscrew Log splitter made £300 and a single axle Trailer got knocked down at £290.
