Rendells Newton Abbot Livestock Market Report Sale of Cattle & Sheep on Wednesday 2nd September 2026

Rendells Auctioneers report a tighter number but made up of good quality entries of cattle and sheep which met a spirited bidding and strong trade significantly up on other markets held earlier that week.

Prime Cows

A run of non tested, non farm assured Hereford cross Steers from S Edgecombe of Kingston, topped the market at 300 pence per kilo for a 535 kilo Steer and 294pp Kg for a 495 kilo Steer.

Steers

Once again brown cattle were the call of the day with an excellent entry of Limousin cross Steers from G R Vallance of Newton Abbot, topping out at £2,090 twice closely followed by South Devon's heifers 19 month old from R J & A M Pedrick, Buckfastleigh selling to £1,910 with further Limousin cross steers selling to £1,780 and heifers at £1,720 while younger Aberdeen Angus cross steers sold to £1,630 in their bunches with younger Simmental cross steers selling to £1,340 whilst Simmental cross Heifers sold to £1,120 and younger Aberdeen Angus cross Heifers selling to £1,050 from D R Woods of Newton Abbot.

Once again many more cattle could have been sold to take advantage of the full compliment of buyers with plenty going home with empty trailers involved.

If you are TB testing your cattle over the next few weeks please contact Rendells Auctioneers to discuss selling at your local market with very competitive sellers commission rates.

Sheep Pens

A quality entry of fat lambs met a good trade with SQQ up on last month to 298ppkg with a top price of 300 pence per kilo for J J & N A Bell with their pens of 46kg lambs while the top price per head was £158 for a 60kg lamb from J J & N A Bell of Diptford. Annette Frazer of Newton Abbot made 294 for her pens of 42kg lambs closely followed by her lighter 38kg lambs selling to 275ppkg
