Chagford Third Drift Pony Sale 5th November 2026
'The Tail Sale'

Another set of both buyers and sellers graced Chagford market with their presence for the final pony sale of the year. Rendells were delighted to host a section for the Dartmoor Pony Society which kicked off the sale with Geldings selling to £315 for Sue Martin with Hazel Pearse making £262.50, Anton Coaker at £231 and Wendy Watson at £210. Mares were in short supply with Ollie Hall topping the Dartmoor Pony Society section at £787.50 for a Sherberton mare with a three-year-old chestnut Filly making £189. A small number of registered foals forward topped at £315 for Margaret Rogers and Mike Lamb.

The sale topped at £1260 for a piebald gelding for Mickey Shears. The Grace family travelled up with a lorry load of Warmblood foals which peaked at £525 five times. Other big prices came from Dave Easterbrook with mares selling to £588, £504, £483 with fillies at £609 & £472.50. There was a selection of Dartmoor hill ponies on offer top of these was £1155 for Ann Cole who sold another well at £682.50 a price matched by Rachel French with a Middle Lake 3-year-old Gelding. Rachel sold another at £525 this was for a grey Leightor gelding. John Shears parted with an artful colt who gave him the slip on his gather for the first sale at £525. Julie & Gordon Mortimore's Grandchildren did a grand job leading their two fillies and colt around the ring which sold for £168x2 & £126 while first time vendor Jo Mawle saw his mares top at £210 and fillies to £147. There was more competition to secure the Dartmoor hill pony foals this time with the bay colts being bid well for to see them up £30-£35 on the week.

Rendells would like to thank all vendors, buyers, staff, supporters and volunteers for their hard work and assistance throughout the sale season and helping to publicise the sale, we look forward to it all again next year.
